

Better Together

Hebrews 10:19-25 A Call to Persevere in Faith

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, <sup>21</sup> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup> Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup> And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup> not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

1. “Confidence to enter into”, what is this most holy place spoken about? V19
2. What is “the new way” through the curtain? V20
3. What is our response to the new way? V22
4. What is now available through God?
5. What does it mean to be freed from guilt? What does this look like?
6. What makes you swerve? V23
7. How do we spur on one another? V24
8. Who are you spurring on?
9. What is good about meeting together? V25
10. What is happening in a theological sense when God's people gather together?
